

2 Stadiums open for African Games

• Table tennis team in action Monday

By Kweku Zurek

THE Vice-President, Dr Mahamudu Bawumia, yesterday inaugurated the University of Ghana Sports and Rugby Stadiums, crucial venues for the 13th African Games - Accra 2023 - which get underway with table tennis at the Accra International Conference Centre (AICC) dome on Monday.

The inauguration marked a significant milestone in Ghana's journey towards hosting top athletes from across the continent, with the Black Loopers carrying the hopes of the nation ahead of the badminton competition at the Borteyman Sports Complex on Monday.

In his address, the Vice-President

Continued on page 05

Vice-President Dr Mahamudu Bawumia (with scissors raised), after cutting a tape to inaugurate the University of Ghana Sports Complex and Rugby Stadium in Accra. With him are Mustapha Ussif (2nd from left), Minister of Youth and Sports, Professor Nana Agya Appiah Amfo (3rd from right), Vice-Chancellor of the University of Ghana, and Dr Kwaku Ofori-Asare (2nd from right), Chairman of the LOC

A view of the University of Ghana Sports Stadium

Global Perspective

South Korea, Cuba
establish diplomatic ties

Page 04

Regional Spotlight

Relief for Abuorso
community

- Mechanised borehole provided to end potable water challenge

Pages 12 & 13

News

Increase support for women in agriculture

- Queenmothers appeal to govt

Pages 16 & 17

Business

Empowering women through agribusiness, social entrepreneurship:

Strategies for inclusive growth in Ghana

Page 23

Sports

Ghana gears up for African Games amid high expectations

Back page

Politics

Majority leadership shakeup: What went wrong?

Page 15

Entertainment

Amandzeba to celebrate 25 years of Wɔgbɛ Dzɛkɛ

Page 20

