Make sacrifices to impact lives

• Clergy to Ghanaians

By Graphic Reporters

CHRISTIAN leaders have called on Ghanaians to resolve to use the Easter festivities to make the needed sacrifices to make the country and the world a better place. They challenged Ghanaians to boldly confront the social ills and practices that threaten their unity and identity as a nation. Furthermore, they entreated Ghanaians to reach out in love to the marginalised, the weak and the dying.

The clergy who shared their Easter messages with the Daily Graphic were the Ghana Catholic Bishops' Conference (GCBC), the Presiding Bishop of the Western West Episcopal District of the AME Zion Church, Rt Rev. Dr Hilliard Dogbe; the Chairman of the Church of Pentecost, Apostle Eric Nyamekye, the General Overseer of the Evangelical Church of Ghana (ECG), Rev. Maxwell K.K.
