Make a difference, despite short period

• President charges ministers, deputies

By Donald Ato Dapatem,
JUBILEE HOUSE

PRESIDENT Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo yesterday swore into office what could best be described as the last batch of ministers, with a charge on them to make a difference despite the short period left.

"I am confident that there is enough time for you to make a difference and significant contribution. Indeed, anyone who has something to prove can make a point within a short period and I am sure that your various competencies, experiences and talents make this distinctly possible," he added.

President Akufo-Addo administered the oaths of
